Doug Osborne is releasing his first solo album. Ten songs of Love and Madness. A guitar-driven journey from the banks of an Indiana river to the streets of Montevideo.

-“Ambitious Pop...” “Standout band...” - Bret Milano, Boston Globe -
Serious Fun on the Boston Rock & Roll Anthology, Vol 4 on VAR International
-"Sometimes, a musician takes the stage and sets a very high bar" -Gary Mandell, Boulevard Music owner and host
-"Guitar work is amazing and the production effort really brings it all together" -
Michael Hall, Vents Magazine on Casey Fallen - Atmospheric Disturbances
-"I could listen to Osborne play solo guitar all day" -Dave Franklin - Dancing About Architecture

Doug has released the remastered singles Pasted on Pout, Arrest My Heart and Cambridge Nights as digital only singles from Serious Fun. These were followed by the Serious Fun EP - previously unreleased mixes of seven high-energy songs, released November 4, 2014. His work on Casey Fallen - Atmospheric Disturbances continues to get rave reviews from more and more media, as well as airplay on a growing number of radio stations.

Doug is releasing these in time for his live solo dates in the Los Angeles area. Doug plans to tour to support Love Takes a Long Time as well as the Serious Fun releases and his upcoming solo album Take a Look. Love Takes a Long Time will fit on modern Rock radio formats with its unique blend of high energy music, blazing guitar, and heartfelt lyrics.
